

Travels with Mary

TRAVELS WITH MARY is a journal that tells the life story of Mary Murphy Bitto. She was born in Hannibal, Missouri and raised in Chicago, but lived for 52 years in Wildwood, Illinois, where she and her husband Lou raised 12 children and two grandchildren. In the 1980s she began to make occasional journal entries that combined her personal recollections with a diary of her everyday life. This volume, edited by her son, tells the story of her remarkable life in her own words from her childhood in Hannibal, to her youth in Chicago, and through her loving marriage, the raising of two generations of children, and her final years as Grandma Mary, the school volunteer.
