

Forty Years Stoned: A Journalists Romance

An amazing journey, filled with humor. You will be changed. -Melissa Etheridge

Forty Years Stoned: A Journalists Romance celebrates a life of high adventure guided by the inspirations and invigorations of smoking marijuana. Its about discovering Leif Erikssons birthplace, and its about discovering that the love of your life has Parkinsons disease. Its about finding laughter and joy amid the rubble of disappointment and creating a vision of acceptance and perfect well-being. Its about my partner Holly, and how we built a beach shack in Costa Rica, and how Annie Leibovitz came down to doll us up in palm fronds and shoot us at the height of our earthly ambitions. Its about how, soon after that, we found out why Hollys fingers were trembling when she did her yoga stretches. So began our final adventure. This is not a sad story. Blame marijuana for the uplifting tone and the comic diversions. Credit marijuana for helping comfort and amuse Holly during her relentless decline while granting me the countless sweet clemencies that have allowed me to go the distance as her caregiver. A reporters eye, a poets soul, a smoke-induced clarity: A tale of love and loss and learning to live by our deepest drumbeats. -Billy Hayes, author of Midnight Express A beautifully written ode to love, life and cannabis. Tears were raining down my cheeks before I finished the first twenty pages. -Steve DeAngelo, author of The Cannabis Manifesto Zesty, ebullient, consistently entertaining. The lyrical descriptions of getting high may produce THC effects in the reader. -Catherine Hiller, author of Just Say Yes: A Marijuana Memoir Tom Huths writing will carry you into a dream, like a long, sweet hit. -Valerie Corral, Wo/Mens Alliance for Medical Marijuana
