

Holy Women of the Past: and what they have to teach us today

In an age where the concept of holiness is mocked, this book is a testimony to the precious holy women of the past, whose exploits in God's Word, the Bible, remind us of the exceptionally high calling of womanhood, and the extraordinary blessings that are bestowed upon those who live for and obey Him. Many of the names you will encounter here are familiar Mary, Sarah, and Ruth but see them now in a new light, including their struggles, pains, prayers, and ultimate victories. Both men and women will benefit greatly from the sound insights of the author, who has created a book that is both a devotional and biblical study guide. This unique book will encourage you in your Christian walk and will give you strength each day as you seek to live for Christ and advance His Kingdom.
