

Prisoner in Room 12: Confessions of a Catholic School Teacher

Prisoner in Room 12: Confessions of a Catholic School Teacher, by Vicky Mitchell, tells how she survived nearly four decades of teaching fifth-grade in a Catholic school. Somehow she prevailed with her sense of humor intact. Today she continues entertaining her students and colleagues with stories of her life experiences. Meet many of Mrs. Mitchell's former students and faculty members, who unintentionally provided her years of entertainment. Enjoy anecdotes about classroom pets and other disasters, Indian projects, the joy of teaching sex education, and the fun side of religion. Vicky will introduce you to her saintly husband, Dick, her perfect children, Angie and Bob, and the rest of her goofy family. See her grow from a novice; to the one-of-a-kind teacher she is today. Her first lesson learned was laughter is good for the soul. Sometime that's the only way to get through the day.
