

No Second Chance: Reflections of a Dublin Priest

Martin Tierney, a native of County Clare, Ireland was ordained a priest of the Dublin Archdiocese in 1964. His training for ministry was at Clonliffe College during the episcopacy of John Charles McQuaid . His priestly ministry varied from parochial appointments in Walkinstown and Swords, to a period of nearly twenty-five years in non-parochial appointments with The Charismatic Renewal, The Catholic Communications Institute, and a variety of other positions. This is a very candid and passionate reflection on his priestly life.
