

British Columbia Penitentiary: The Murder of Mary Steinhauser

Chief Constable Dave Jones New Westminster Police Department New Westminster, BC Canada V3L 1B2 Phone: 604-525-5411 Dear Chief Constable Dave Jones, I see reference to our Police force supposedly doing an Investigation into the death of Mary Steinhauser 1975? New Westminster police have launched an investigation into the death of Classification Officer Mary Steinhauser, shot by prison guards in the old B.C. Penitentiary in 1975. The new investigation comes after a former ambulance paramedic made a statement to police last month saying he overheard a guard say, Kill her, kill her, before the rescue attempt. New Westminster police Staff-Sgt. Casey Dehaas confirmed that the paramedic, George High, had given a videotaped statement. In an exclusive interview with the Sunday Province, High said he is convinced that at least one guard intended to shoot Steinhauser. There's no question in my mind that Mary Steinhauser was purposefully shot, he said. Any chance you people are going to post the results of this supposed investigation to the media anytime soon? Terry Mallenby, BA, BSW, MA Former Classification Officer British Columbia Penitentiary NO REPLY FROM CHIEF CONSTABLE DAVE JONES???
