

Members of Parliament

The debate rages on. Gaston Robinson, the half Cornish, half French Labour prime Minister is in a pickle. The expenses scandal has gripped the nation and his popularity has dived faster than an investment bank. He needs a plan, a distraction, anything that will help him in the polls. Recalling Parliament as they are about to start their three month summer break, the three main party leaders haul the pigs of Westminster, kicking and screaming into the House of Commons to vote on a reduction of their expenses and a new expenses package that is designed to fool the public and increase Gaston's popularity. All is going well until a lonely, lovesick Asteroid gatecrashes the party.
