

Shades of Gray: Memoirs of a Prussian Saint on the Eastern Front

This book is the memoirs of a German caught up in the events of World War II. As an artillery spotter on the Eastern Front, Art Naujoks survived Stalingrad, and the horrors of being trapped behind enemy lines. As a Mormon, he was subject to ridicule and contempt from the German public. But when it came time to serve his country, right or wrong, Art stepped up to do his duty. In this remarkable memoir, Art Naujoks details his battlefield engagements, injuries, and his tremendous will to live through the nightmare of the Eastern Front.
