

Kobe House P.O.W. #13

1st Sergeant Arthur Bud Locke was based at Clark Field in the Philippines, as part of the USAAFs Far East Air Service Command, in 1941. He was taken prisoner with many others in the Japanese invasion of the Philippines, experienced the Bataan Death March, and was transported to a POW work-camp in Kobe, Japan, from which he was liberated at the end of the war. This is the story of his war.
