

A Selection of Italian Arias 1600-1800, (Low Voice): Volume I (v. 1)

This well-known collection of 21 arias, some including recitatives, is an ideal introduction to singing in Italian, as well as providing useful material for the advanced performer. The set contains a varied selection of operatic arias, movements from solo cantatas, and songs, and includes contributions from well-known composers, such as Handel and Monteverdi, as well as those which may not previously have been encountered. The arias themselves range from the rarely heard to the very familiar - Lascia chio pianga and the cavatina Caro mio ben to name but two of the latter. From the animated Alma del core and the intensely dramatic O del mio dolce ardor to the sustained tranquillity of Posate, dormite, this is a collection to suit many occasions.
